

Justin Burkett

Wake Forest University, PO Box 7505, Winston Salem, North Carolina 27109, USA
burketje@wfu.edu • +1 (336) 658-7503 • <http://justin.burkett.cc>

EDUCATION

University of Maryland, College Park, Maryland, USA

- Ph.D. in Economics

Aug 2007 – Dec 2012

Washington University in Saint Louis, Saint Louis, Missouri, USA

- B.A. in Economics (Second major in Philosophy)
- Summa Cum Laude and Phi Beta Kappa

Aug 2000 – May 2004

EMPLOYMENT

Wake Forest University, Department of Economics

- Assistant Professor of Economics

Jul 2012 – Present

PAPERS

PUBLISHED OR FORTHCOMING

- [1] Baisa B., Burkett J., “Large Multi-Unit Auctions with a Large Bidder,” Journal of Economic Theory, 174, pp. 1–15, 2018.
- [2] Burkett J., Flanagan F.X., Griffith A.L., “Allocating Group Housing,” Social Choice and Welfare, 50(4), pp. 581–596, 2018.
- [3] Burkett J., “Information Disclosure in Auctions with Downstream Competition,” Economics Letters, 163, pp. 22–26, 2018.
- [4] Ausubel L., Burkett J., Filiz-Ozbay E., “An Experiment on Auctions with Endogenous Budget Constraints,” Experimental Economics, 20(4), pp. 973–1006, 2017.
- [5] Burkett J., “Optimally Constraining a Bidder Using a Simple Budget,” Theoretical Economics, 11, pp. 133–155, 2016.
- [6] Burkett J., “Endogenous Budget Constraints in Auctions,” Journal of Economic Theory, 158, pp. 1–20, 2015.
- [7] Burkett, J., “How much will people pay for status?” The American Economist, 50(1), pp. 80–87, 2006.

WORKING PAPERS

- [1] Burkett J., Woodward K., “Uniform-Price Auctions with a Last Accepted Bid Pricing Rule.”
- [2] Baisa B., Burkett J., “Optimal Quantity Caps in Discriminatory Auctions with Resale,” Revision requested at Theoretical Economics.
- [3] Baisa B., Burkett J., “Efficient Ex Post Implementable Auctions and English Auctions for Bidders with Non-Quasilinear Preferences,” Submitted.
- [4] Burkett J., Steckel R.H., Wallis J., “Violence, Size, and the Origins of Inequality: The Rise of Large Societies in the Neolithic Revolution,” Submitted.

PRESENTATIONS

- 2017 INFORMS Auction Cluster
2016 University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill; Workshop on Auction Design (University of Vienna); INFORMS Auction Cluster
2015 University of Maryland, College Park; Davidson College; Wake Forest University; Midwest Economic Theory; INFORMS Auction Cluster
2014 Econometric Society North American Summer Meetings; Midwest Economic Theory; Southern Economic Association Meetings
2012 North Carolina State University; Federal Trade Commission, Kansas Workshop on Economic Theory; Wake Forest University; Compass Lexecon; The Brattle Group
2011 North American Economic Science Association

AWARDS & SCHOLARSHIPS

- Roger and Alicia Betancourt Fellowship in Applied Economics 2011
- NSF Fellow at the Lindau Meetings of Nobel Laureates in Economic Science 2011
- Graduate Assistantship 2007 – 2012
- Frank W. Taussig Award 2005
- Olin Prize for Economics 2004

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Wake Forest University

Intermediate Microeconomics I and II; Optimization Techniques in Economics; Advanced Topics in Mathematical Economics; Market Design; Game Theory

University of Maryland, College Park

Methods and Tools of Economic Analysis; Principals of Economics

OTHER WORK
EXPERIENCE

Power Auctions, Washington D.C., Consultant

2009 – 2012

University of Maryland, College Park, Maryland, Graduate Assistant

2007 – 2012

Burns & Associates, Washington D.C., Consultant

2006 – 2007

EP&P Consulting, Washington D.C., Consultant

2004 – 2006

REFERENCES

- Professor Lawrence Ausubel, University of Maryland, College Park
ausubel@econ.umd.edu • +1 (301) 405–3495
- Professor Peter Cramton, University of Maryland, College Park
pcramton@gmail.com • +1 (240) 479–9345
- Professor Amanda Griffith, Wake Forest University
griffial@wfu.edu • +1 (336) 758–4523

PERSONAL INFORMATION

- Citizenship: U.S.
- Gender: Male

[CV compiled on 2018-04-05]